

- Laurie, Bellevue Fire Department: Is a department able to submit for reimbursement for 200 hours for each firefighter each year?

BFFTP – No. The 200 hours is a lifetime limit established by legislation. It is not an annual or biennium limit.

- Jeff Pfaff, Yakima Fire Department: Do we need to use certified instructors to deliver training that will be reimbursed by the Basic Fire Fighter Training Program?

BFFTP – No. Certified instructors are not required to deliver training that will be submitted for reimbursement. Instructor qualifications are determined by the fire department.

- Randy Miller, Pend Oreille FD 7: How long does it take to receive a reimbursement after the verification has been submitted to the OSFM?

BFFTP – It usually takes 30-60 days to receive the reimbursement.
